

Creating Transformational Change for Your Payroll Team

In this session you will learn how to change your traditional thinking of how a payroll department functions. You will be presented with thought provoking ideas on how to change the way your department interacts with your internal and external customers. Additionally, you will think how you can change the mindset of your employees in their daily business processes.