

Paul Glasser
Deloitte Tax LLP

Paul Glasser is a Senior Consultant in the Global Employer Services Tax Practice at Deloitte Tax LLP focused on US domestic employment tax services and various payroll related compliance issues. His clients range across various industries, including both US and foreign based companies of various sizes and experience levels. Examples of services include employer federal and state tax compliance, domestic remote work consulting, employer registration support, payroll processing support, audit support, and state tax controversy. Paul earned his master's degree from Clemson University and his bachelor's degree from The Citadel.